Dearest Supporter, Steward and Friend,

This year, the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral of Chicago marks a historical year in her history. One hundred and twenty-five years ago in 1892, the Annunciation Cathedral of Chicago was established by a group of people who had emigrated from Laconia as well as some of the Greek Islands. At first, this community rented a hall on Randolph near Union Street, and then asked the Holy Synod of Athens for a priest. Fr. Panagiotis Fiambolis of Ithaca was assigned as the first priest. In March of 1892, the first Divine Liturgy was celebrated. Today we have a beacon of faith in the magnificent Cathedral that serves as the spiritual home to all of Chicago.

Countless liturgies, sacraments and visits of Patriarchs, as well as Archbishops and heads of state have taken place at the Cathedral, the oldest standing Orthodox house of worship in Chicago. Despite many struggles throughout her history, our Cathedral has never ceased serving the needs of the thousands of faithful that have come through her doors over the decades. It is our goal to keep this magnificent parish shining for generations to come.

In celebration of this historical year, a Gala Celebration will be held to remind us of the 125 years of service in faith, love and heritage. The 125TH Cathedral Gala will take place at the Drake Hotel in Chicago on Saturday, December 2, 2017 at six o'clock in the evening. Beloved supporter, steward and friend, in order to ensure the success of this event and the continued wellbeing of our most historic community, we seek your support through a Gala Sponsorship or Event Book Sponsorship.

Enclosed please find the 125TH Cathedral Gala sponsorship levels, including what they each provide. We further look forward to seeing you present at the Gala. Formal invitations to this historic event will follow.

It would be our honor to personally discuss in detail any questions you may have about these sponsorship opportunities. Please contact the Cathedral office at 312-664-5485 or use our event email (125GALA@annunciationcathedralchicago.org). On behalf of the entire community, we thank you for your thoughtful consideration of support at this most historic event in the life of our church.
